INVESTMENT PHILOSOPHY

Our Small Cap Value Equity philosophy is founded on the belief that excess returns may be achieved by investing in companies at or near inflections in expected Return on Invested Capital (ROIC). Using proprietary screens to limit the universe to companies with low embedded expectations, we utilize our investment process in an effort to identify catalysts of change for improved returns while guarding for risk.

INVESTMENT STRATEGY

The Segall Bryant & Hamill Small Cap Value Fund utilizes a fundamental, bottom-up approach in an effort to identify improving business models that have the capability to generate significant improvement in ROIC over the investment horizon. The diversified portfolio may mitigate risk while maintaining high active share that is driven by our proprietary investment process.

INVESTMENT PROCESS

The advisor's investment process is driven by a combination of proprietary screening and fundamental due diligence centered on companies possessing those catalysts that we believe will drive a significant improvement in ROIC. The advisor operates in an effort to exploit the relatively inefficient small cap market by investing in companies which are trading below the advisor's estimate of their intrinsic value. The advisor searches for companies it believes are attractively priced relative to peer groups, concentrating most on those possessing sustainable ROIC improvement catalysts.

Returns shown for less than one-year are cumulative. Performance data quoted represents past performance and does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. Performance data current to the most recent month-end may be obtained by visiting www.sbhffunds.com, or by calling 1-866-490-4999. Performance data quoted does not reflect the 2.00% redemption fee on shares redeemed within 90 days of purchase. If reflected, total returns would be reduced.

The Russell 2000 Value Index measures the performance of the small cap value segment of the U.S. equity universe. An investor cannot invest directly in an index.

INVESTMENT RISK

- Market Risk: The market value of a security or instrument may decline due to general market conditions that are not specifically related to a particular company, such as real or perceived adverse economic conditions, changes in the general outlook for corporate earnings, changes in interest or currency rates or adverse investor sentiment generally.
- Equity Risk: Equity securities, such as common stocks, are subject to market, economic and business risks that may cause their prices to fluctuate.
- Small- and Mid-Cap Company Risk: The securities of small- or mid-cap companies may be subject to more abrupt or erratic market movements and may have lower trading volumes or more erratic trading than securities of larger companies or the market averages in general. In addition, such companies typically are subject to a greater degree of change in earnings and business prospects than are larger, more established companies.
- Management Risk: The Fund’s portfolio is actively managed. The Fund’s advisor applies investment techniques and risk analysis in making investment decisions for the Fund, but there can be no guarantee that these will produce.

As of 12/31/18, SBHVX (Class I) in the Small Blend category for the three-year period received 5 stars among 644 Funds. For the five-year period, SBHVX (Class I) received 5 stars among 541 Funds. The Morningstar Rating™ for funds, or “star rating,” is calculated for managed products (including mutual funds, variable annuity and variable life subaccounts, exchange-traded funds, closed-end funds, and separate accounts) with at least a three-year history. Exchange-traded funds and open-ended mutual funds are considered a single population for comparative purposes. It is calculated based on a Morningstar Risk-Adjusted Return measure that accounts for variation in a managed product’s monthly excess performance, placing more emphasis on downward variations and rewarding consistent performance. The top 10% of products in each product category receive 5 stars, the next 22.5% receive 4 stars, the next 35% receive 3 stars, the next 22.5% receive 2 stars, and the bottom 10% receive 1 star. The Overall Morningstar Rating for a managed product is derived from a weighted average of the performance figures associated with its three-, five-, and 10-year (if applicable) Morningstar Rating metrics. The weights are: 100% three-year rating for 36-59 months of total returns, 60% five-year rating/40% three-year rating for 60-119 months of total returns, and 50% 10-year rating/30% five-year rating/20% three-year rating for 120 or more months of total returns. While the 10-year overall star rating formula seems to give the most weight to the 10-year period, the most recent three-year period actually has the greatest impact because it is included in all three rating periods. The Morningstar Rating is for the share class specified only; ratings for other share classes will vary. Past performance is no guarantee of future results.
